GENERAL INFORMATION

The Country Club of New Bedford reserves the right to inspect and control all functions. We also practice responsible alcohol service and therefore reserve the right to limit or stop service to any person or persons who are clearly intoxicated or are disturbing the peace. Liability for damage to property and/or equipment will be charged accordingly.

C.C.N.B. will not assume responsibility for the loss of gifts, envelopes and personal items.

Non-Member Events and Member-Sponsored Events will be charged a nominal Room Rental Fee.

Room selection will be determined based on guest count.

Seating capacity of rooms may vary, given specific setup requests and menu selections.

Full Use of Clubhouse

There must be a 150 confirmed guest count in order to close the clubhouse for your private function. Approval must be granted by the board of governors to do so. A formal letter must be written to the board, including a request of the date as well as the guest counts and any additional requirements.

Deposits and Cancellations

Cancellations must be made no less than seven (7) days prior to the scheduled event. If the party fails to cancel by this date, they will be charged for 100% of all arrangements made. All deposits are non-refundable.

Methods of Payment

Deposits are required to hold the date of an event. The $250 deposit will be taken off of the final bill. CCNB accepts MasterCard, Visa, American Express, Discover as well as cash, personal checks, and member charges that are in good standing. The prices on the menu do not reflect the 20% gratuity, 2% service charge, and 7% meal tax that will be applied to the final bill. Payment is required upon completion of event.

Dress Code

The Host or Hostess is responsible for the attire of their guests. Management has an obligation to the membership of the Country Club of New Bedford to strictly enforce this code. It is requested that gentlemen wear a collared shirt that is to be tucked in at all times along with a jacket, particularly on Saturday evenings, and that all guests refrain from wearing jeans. Under no circumstances will hats, cut-offs or tank tops of any kind be allowed.

Non-Member Function

It is required that if you are not a member of the CCNB, that you have a current member to sponsor your event. Your member sponsor must contact the event coordinator for approval prior to arranging services. Non members are responsible for all fees and charges.

Responsible Service Practices

In compliance with the Board of Health and the Massachusetts Alcoholic Beverage Commission, all food and beverage consumed on CCNB property must be provided by CCNB with the exception of wedding cakes and desserts. No bulk food is allowed to be taken off of the premise by any patron. No alcohol may be brought onto CCNB property.

CCNB reserves the right to deny alcohol service to any intoxicated person. Further, no alcoholic beverages will be provided to anyone under the age of 21 years old. Proper identification is necessary for alcohol service. CCNB reserves the right to deny alcohol service to anyone who cannot provide proper identification.

Menu Selection/Guest Count Confirmations

To allow for adequate preparation, menu selections and guest counts must be completed no later than 7 days before the event date. Menus with split meals must have meal tickets (provided by host).

Seating Arrangements

Our tables are rectangular tables of eight or ten. We also have round tables available that can seat six or eight. Our event coordinator will help you create a floor plan that will best suit your needs. Any name cards or seating chart displays are the responsibility of the event host.

We do not offer open seating!

Country Club of New Bedford treats all matters regarding allergies and dietary restrictions with utmost urgency.

Please notify us if you, or any guests attending your event have a dietary restriction or allergy.

The safety of our members and guests is our top priority.

Thank You

Notice: consuming raw or uncooked meats, poultry, shellfish, seafood or eggs may increase your chance of food borne illness. Before placing your order please inform us of any guests coming to your event who may have allergies.
